HISTORIC BED AND BREAKFASTS

Church Street House: Beautifully decorated in the spirit of the 20's and 30's, this small 2- bedroom bed and breakfast is steeped in history. Owned by the Barber family and sold in the late 1940's the family moved to Alaska from Sandpoint but always missed the house on Church Street. Two generations later, the Barbers bought back the home in 1999, restored it and opened up the Church Street Bed and Breakfast.
